BUSINESS

ADMINISTRATION

A. CONSENT JUDGEMENT – Tatman gave a brief overview of the litigation Cardaris Vs. Village of Lexington Council. Both sides came to an agreement. Three issues Cardaris agreed with, fence around the pool, tree barriers and property cannot be used for event venues, for lodging only. Village agreed to allow the Short Term Rental. Cardaris must comply with the conditions, if not followed the Short Term Rental Agreement will be terminated.

Motion by Schultz, seconded by Muoio, to accept the consent judgement as presented.
